

How You Can Help Teaching HOPE

If you have....

Money:

- Donate to Teaching HOPE! Our most pressing need is financial support. Every little bit helps!
Checks can be made out to Teaching Hope and mailed to:
12808 Melvue Court
Fairfax, VA 22033
- Donations can also be made by credit card on our website:
www.teachinghope.org (please note that PayPal receives a percentage of all donations made online)

Time:

- Plan a fundraiser, such as a yard sale or car wash
- Be a virtual mentor to a child in Colombia
- Help create materials and games for our English classes
- Post our fliers and brochures on community bulletin boards in your local coffee shop, gym, or grocery store
- Help with or attend one of our fundraisers
- Volunteer with a specific project or need

Connections:

- Tell your friends, family, church or other group about our work
- If you know an accountant who might be willing to work for Teaching HOPE on a pro-bono basis, please refer them to us!
- Introduce us to connections in the shipping industry
- If you have friends of family in Colombia, please let them know about the work we're doing
- We need the assistance of someone who is experienced with grant-writing

Items We Need:

- Working laptop computers and printers for the computer lab
- Children's books in English
- Kids' videos and DVDs in English
- School supplies, such as pens and pencils
- Office supplies
- Software and CDs that teach English
